

Call for Conference Presentations

Colorado Association of Stormwater and Floodplain Managers 14th Annual Conference

2003: I've Seen Fire, I Haven't Seen Rain

The Colorado Association of Stormwater and Floodplain Managers (CASFM) is requesting abstracts or topics for presentations at its 14th Annual Conference in Breckenridge, to be held September 10-12, 2003. Presentations are typically 30 minutes in length, and workshops are 3 hours. This is a great opportunity to talk to your peers about interesting projects and information you have gained in the field of stormwater and floodplains.

The conference will be held at the beautiful Beaver Run Resort in Breckenridge, Colorado. This is a spectacular place to enjoy the scenic fall beauty in the Rocky Mountains while taking part in this professionally valuable annual event. The Beaver Run Resort is ideally situated to provide easy access to a variety of exciting restaurants, unique shopping, and rewarding recreational opportunities for attendees and their families.

This year's theme is "2003: I've Seen Fire, I Haven't Seen Rain", which allows for a wide variety of subjects. Some suggested topics include:

- Impacts of the recent Drought and Forest Fires
- Stormwater Management
- Floodplain Management
- Water Quality Enhancement
- Stream/Riparian Zone Enhancement
- Watershed Protection, Management & Planning
- Innovative Techniques and Technological Advances
- Legislative Dilemmas

If you have a topic you would like to present, or an idea for a half-day workshop, please complete a draft abstract in accordance with the abstract format below and return via email by:

March 31, 2003

Please note that presenters are required to be registered conference attendees. While everyone is encouraged to attend the entire length of the conference, special one-day rates will be available for presenters and others who are unable to attend all three days. Current information will be posted on the conference page at www.casfm.org as it becomes available.
