2007 ARID REGIONS 11TH TRIENNIAL CONFERENCE

September 11-14, 2007
Beaver Run Resort
Breckenridge, Colorado

CALL FOR PAPERS

Deadline April 30, 2007

Call for Conference Presentations

The Association of State Floodplain Managers (ASFPM) is requesting abstracts for presentation at the 11th Triennial Arid Region Conference in Breckenridge, Colorado to be held September 11-14, 2007. Presentations are typically 30 minutes in length. You are invited to share your floodplain management experiences and address the many issues associated with the Restoration and Management of Arid Watercourses. The conference theme this year is:

Round-up in the High Country

Presentations are a way to instruct your fellow engineers, scientists and community leaders on new techniques and interesting project lessons unique to the watercourses found in arid regions. The presentations should be a current topic related to stormwater and floodplains. Topics will vary but may include:

- Stormwater & Floodplain Management
- Water Quality Enhancement
- Stream Restoration
- Watershed Protection & Planning
- New Drainage Criteria
- Innovative Techniques
- Technological Advances
- Hydrologic Modeling
- Hydraulic Modeling
- GIS Mapping
- No Adverse Impact Floodplain Management
- Lessons Learned
- Public Involvement
- Project Updates

About the Conference

The conference will be held at the Beaver Run Resort in Breckenridge, Colorado and will be a joint effort of the triennial Arid Regions conference and the Colorado State (CASFM) 18th Annual conference. Breckenridge is a spectacular ski town at elevation 9,600 feet in the Rocky Mountains, and is a great place to enjoy the scenic fall beauty while taking part in this professionally valuable annual event. The Beaver Run Resort is located near downtown Breckenridge and provides easy access to a variety of exciting restaurants, unique shopping, and exciting recreational opportunities for attendees and their families.

For budgetary planning, we anticipate early conference registration to be $220 for member organizations. Field trips, membership and late registration will be extra. Conference registration will begin mid-June. Hotel room rates will start at $111 per night ($99 government rate). Be sure to mention "Flood Conference." If you have questions about the resort facilities, contact:
