

UTILITIES ENGINEER - STORMWATER

Utilities

The Town of Castle Rock is seeking a Utilities Engineer - Stormwater to join the Utilities Department. Under the general direction of the Stormwater Project Manager, this position provides support to stormwater master planning, capital improvement projects, environmental water quality compliance, floodplain management, maintenance activities, and development efforts for the Town's Utilities Department. Performs duties in a manner consistent with the stated values of the organization.

Duties and responsibilities Provides design and technical support to Project Managers on a variety of Stormwater projects and may also include Water, Wastewater, and Water Resources related project. Provides long-range planning and input for the utility systems needed to support new development, CIP projects, upgrades, and operational functions. Manages the design and construction observation of small scale stormwater projects. Provides support on the Phase II MS4 Permit (stormwater quality permit) program elements and floodplain administration program. Provides analysis and maintains utility information for the Stormwater systems and reviewing CIP and development engineering plans submitted by consultants, Town staff, and developers for accuracy and compliance with Town regulations and engineering standards.

Qualifications: Generally a Bachelor of Science in Engineering (civil preferred) or related discipline supplemented by 3 to 4 years related experience; or an equivalent combination of education, training and experience. Enrollment as a Colorado Engineer Intern (EI) is preferred. A valid driver's license is required to conduct on-site project evaluations and attend out of office meetings. Must satisfactorily complete a driving record check and criminal background check prior to commencing employment.

Hiring range: $26.90 to $32.27 per hr., DOQ plus excellent benefits. Please apply on line at www.crgov.com or email to jobs@crgov.com, or fax to 303-660-1024 or mail to: Town of Castle Rock, Human Resources, #UES2012-01, 100 N. Wilcox St, Castle Rock, CO 80104. Position closes March 2, 2012. EOE

Visit our website at www.CRgov.com